News Notes

Items of interest from throughout the Union County area

Merry Christmas to all of our readers.

If you have not had a chance to do so yet...take a drive around Union County to check out the holiday season light displays. There are some very nice displays again this year...

***

...and be sure to pay a visit to the Anna City Park to see this year's Gumdrop Drive displays.

***

Holiday season break time has arrived for Union County schools.

***

Doesn't look like there is much of a chance for a white Christmas in Union County. The forecast is calling for sunshine and a high temperature near 57 degrees on Christmas Day.

***

Tuesday was the first day of winter. Very heavy frost at least hinted at the appearance of snow.

***

Circulation of nominating petitions for the 2022 election is set to begin Jan. 13. Union County offices which will be on the ballot in 2022 include two seats on the board of commissioners, sheriff, treasurer, clerk/recorder. Precinct committee posts also will be on the ballot. More on this to come...

Local farmers, growers offer unique gift ideas

By Kay Shipman
FarmWeek

With shoppers worried about supply chains and shipping delays, holiday foods and gifts from the farm have never been timelier.

"Everybody is worried about finding gifts and supply chain disruptions. The perfect solution is finding somebody making a gift locally and shopping at a farm nearby for a unique gift," said Dar Knipe, co-founder of MarketMaker, an interactive database.

Farmers and growers are using different options to help shoppers check off items on their gift lists, according to Raghela Scavuzzo, Illinois Farm Bureau associate director of food systems development.

Cross promotions that combine products from different farms proved popular during the pandemic and continue this year, Scavuzzo said. "We're seeing that cheese, honey and nuts go together," she added.

For example, Campaign's Prairie Fruits Farm and Creamery is offering gift baskets of the farm's artisan cheeses along with an assortment of regional food products. By joining group promotion and events, farms share the work of attracting customers and increasing brand recognition.

Assembling local gift boxes

Scavuzzo pointed out many communities and local chambers of commerce are promoting local holiday shopping and may include local farm stands. She suggested another idea is a farm pop-up shop located in a local business during the holidays.

Through MarketMaker, online shopping with participating farmers is easy at il.foodmarketmaker.com, Knipe said. The database allows buyers to search for growers by ZIP codes, place, point of interest and type of commerce, such as online stores.

Those wanting in-person experience will find business hours, product attributes and other information. "Part of the fun is finding a farm close by that you didn't know existed," Knipe said.

State-sponsored promotions and events give other opportunities. The Illinois Department of Agriculture's Illinois Product Holiday Market featured local foods and goods Dec. 4-5 near the governor's mansion in Springfield.

While the 2021 event just ended, Scavuzzo suggested interested farmers contact the department's marketing

Student entrepreneurs

Union County CEO entrepreneurship program participants assembled and sold more than 200 boxes of farm-fresh products from local farms during the group's second annual sale. bureau about 2022 holiday promotions.

And several farms are among 20 businesses highlighted in the Illinois Office of Tourism's new "Illinois-Made Holiday Gift Guide" found at enjoyillinois.com/illinois-made/2021-holiday-gift-guide.

For example, Union County's Shawnee Hills Lavender is promoted for hand-blended, lavender teas made by Doug and Charlotte Clover.

Launched in 2016, the Illinois Made program, which includes the holiday gift guide, promotes unique experiences throughout the state. The program now features more than 200 businesses. To be considered for the Illinois Made program, farms and businesses must demonstrate characteristics that make Illinois unique. Criteria details are available at enjoyillinois.com/illinois-made/illinois-made-criteria.

Awards presented at annual event

Women in Business have annual Christmas party

The Union County Women in Business recently had its annual Christmas party at member Regina Morrison's StarView Vineyards near Cobden.

The dinner, catered by RE and Sandy, and desserts from Anna Baking Company and Schoolhouse Cheesecakes, were followed by a brief business meeting before the "fun and games."

Union County Women in Business president Leni Lambdin opened the meeting with a welcome and a review of highlights of the last year, including the Adult Prom which raised funds for the four scholarships given each year.

That was followed by the election of new officers for 2022. The officers are:

President: Hope Holderfield, Union County Abstract.

Vice president of programming and internal networking: Jennifer York, Dixie Barbecue.

Secretary: Lindsey Bailey, DVM, Haire Veterinary Clinic.

Treasurer: Danielle Dodd, Taylor, Dodd and Wood.

Membership chair: Melanie Smith, Union County CEO.

Public relations chair: Evelyn Bailey.

Members at large: Sarah Clinton, Anna-Jonesboro National Bank; Jaime Watkins, Shawnee Hills Real Estate; and Kaitlin McWhorter, Duckworks Lawn Care.

Annual awards were then presented by president Lambdin. They were awarded to:

veterinarian at Haire Veterinary Clinic, member of the year: "In recognition of your time, generosity, and dedication to the organization."

Shelly Pender, owner of Fluttering Bloom Designs LLC, wood flowers, now available at Country Roads Flowers & Gifts, cottage industry of the year: "In recognition of your business and in appreciation of your improvement to local cottage industries."

Nancy Watkins, owner of Shawnee Hills Real Estate LLC, new business of the year (no awards given for 2021): "In recognition of your new business and in appreciation of your improving an existing building."

Leni Lambdin, CPA, partner in Parrish and Lambdin, CPA's: "In recognition of your service as Past President of Union County Women in Business."

The meeting wrapped up with new president Hope Holderfield setting some goals for the year, including a celebration this summer of the 30th anniversary of the establishment of Union County Women in Business.

The group enjoyed an ornament exchange, a photo booth area and the giving of one last prize. Kathy Bryan, owner of Kiki's Coffeehouse, and Alyssa Penrod, co-owner of Schaefer Excavating LLC, won most festive outfits.

 The Shawnee School District No. 84 Board of Education has selected retired U.S. Air Force Col. Dona Lovejoy Hanley as the 2021-2022 Shawnee's Best award recipient. Hanley will be recognized during homecoming activities which are planned at the Wolf Lake school on Saturday, Jan. 15. Much more about this to come...

***

Roof replacement work and other projects have been discussed for Lincoln Elementary School in Anna.

***
 The Village of Cobden is proceeding with acquisition of real estate for a well location. The location has been deemed as a feasible site for a well.

Local gifts

 Students assembled and sold more than 200 boxes that included local foods and agricultural products, said Union County Farm Bureau manager Stephanie Rhodes. The county Farm Bureau office offers meeting space for the class.

***
 The Union County Board of Commissioners had a regular meeting scheduled for Wednesday morning, Dec. 22. Items on the agenda included a resolution setting property tax levies for the fiscal year which began Dec. 1.

Several local farms sell products and/or help sponsor the students' group gift box project, Rhodes said, adding this marked the second year local product boxes were sold.

***
 A message posted on social media shared that earthquake monitoring stations in the Kentucky Seismic and Strong-Motion Network recorded strong ground vibrations associated with the storms that produced the Dec. 10-11 devastating tornadoes that passed through western and central Kentucky.

For farms whose seasonal products aren't available during the holidays, gift cards could be an option.

***
 A report on ballparkdigest.com shared that Rent One Park in Marion has been purchased "and will transition into a hub for sports tourism." Rent One Park was the home of the Southern Illinois Miners baseball team, which has ceased operations.

Consider simple paper gift certificates to allow a future purchase or the gift recipient to select a flavor, style or aroma of his or her choice.

Expiration dates extended for driver's licenses, ID cards

Expiration dates for driver's licenses and ID cards have been extended an additional three months, from Jan. 1, 2022, to March 31, 2022.

The Illinois Secretary of State's office said the extension does not apply to commercial driver's licenses, CDL, and CDL learner's permits. White noted this will be the final extension. "During the pandemic, my office has continued to serve the public, including face-to-face transactions, in a safe and responsible manner," Illinois Secretary of State Jesse White said in a news release.

"This extension is necessary as my office continues to address the heavy customers volume caused by the COVID-19 pandemic through expanded online services and the introduction of appointments at select driver services facilities."

Public Act 102-678 authorizes the Illinois Secretary of State's office to extend driver's license and ID card expiration dates to March 31, 2022.

Throughout the pandemic, White's office has launched a diversified effort to address the heavy customer demand at facilities caused by the ongoing pandemic by requiring appointments at select facilities and expanding online services. These efforts include:

- Requiring appointments at select driver services facilities for behind-the-wheel road tests, REAL IDs, standard driver's licenses and ID cards.

Customers may visit ilsos.gov for a list of participating facilities, as well as to schedule an appointment. New appointment slots will be available each day at ilsos.gov.

Expanding remote renewal for driver's license and ID card holders. Since fall, the office has been mailing letters to eligible customers with expired driver's licenses and ID cards requiring them to renew online, by phone or by mail.

The office estimates that this will eliminate the need for approximately 1 million people to visit a facility.

Urging the public to consider using online services at ilsos.gov instead of visiting a facility for transactions such as purchasing license plate stickers, obtaining a duplicate driver's license or ID card and renewing driver's licenses and ID cards, including REAL IDs, for those who are eligible.

The Illinois Secretary of State's office also noted that the U.S. Department of Homeland Security has extended the federal REAL ID deadline to May 3, 2023.

Honor Wreaths for Veterans activities held in Union County

More than 1,000 Union County veterans were honored with special tributes on Saturday, Dec. 18.

Honor Wreaths for Veterans ceremonies and wreath layings were held on Saturday at cemeteries throughout the county. Honor Wreaths for Veterans is a branch of Wreaths Across America.

Wreaths Across America is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization which was founded to continue and expand an annual wreath-laying ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery begun by Maine businessman Morrill Worcester in 1992.

The organization's mission, Remember, Honor, Teach, is carried out in part each year by coordinating wreath-laying ceremonies in December at Arlington, as well as at more than 2,500 veterans cemeteries and other locations in all 50 states and overseas.

That mission was carried out during last weekend's special activities in Union County.

An Honor Wreaths for Veterans ceremony was held Saturday morning at the Anna Nazarene Church. The ceremony was for Anna and Jonesboro.

The program for Saturday's ceremony included: VFW honor guard posting the colors, commanded by Mark Haddick.

Posting of colors accompanied by pianist Carla Anderson, who played "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Opening prayer by Phil Ray, who led the ceremony.

National Anthem, presented by Rachel Norton and members of the Anna-Jonesboro Community

High School concert choir. Pledge of Allegiance, led by Boy Scout Troop 44.

Message of honor, given by Phil Ray.

Symbolic wreath laying, presented by Melinda Clardy.

Moment of silent prayer to honor all deceased veterans.

"Taps," presented by bugler Rachel Norton.

Retrieving of the colors, VFW honor guard.

Following the ceremony, those in attendance were able to go to the Anna Cemetery and the Jonesboro Cemetery to lay Honor Wreaths for Veterans.

Anna City Council member Martha Ann Webb has worked hard in support of the Honor Wreaths for Veterans tributes in Union County.

Webb is coordinator of activities which are planned at the Anna Cemetery. Liz Wilkins served as coordinator for activities at the Jonesboro Cemetery.

Webb works tirelessly throughout the year on planning the Honor Wreaths for Veterans activities. Her goal is to have a wreath placed on the grave of every veteran in Union County.

Several of those who participated in Saturday's activities praised the work Webb does. Jonesboro Cemetery coordinator Liz Wilkins was very grateful for all of the support she received from Webb.

(For more news and photographs from Saturday's Honor Wreaths for Veterans activities, please see this week's Anna News, written by Martha Ann Webb, which can be found elsewhere in this week's newspaper.)

Honoring a veteran

Preparing Honor Wreaths

Frankie Williams, Katelynn Williams and Bryan Williams prepared wreaths to be placed on the graves of relatives, and veterans, who are buried at the Anna Cemetery. They placed wreaths at the graves of their father and grandfather, Frankie Williams, a Marine who served in Viet Nam; and a great-uncle and great-great-uncle, Don Ray, who served in the Army during World War II.

Ceremony at Anna church

An Honor Wreaths for Veterans ceremony was held Saturday morning at the Anna Nazarene Church. During the ceremony, Boy Scout Troop 44 led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Girl Scouts help in Jonesboro

Local Girl Scouts were among those who helped to Honor Wreaths for Veterans at the Jonesboro Cemetery. The scouts, from Troop 8533, and other volunteers took time to gather for a photograph with Liz Wilkins, who coordinated Honor Wreaths for Veterans activities at the Jonesboro Cemetery.

State police offer FOID assistance

The Illinois State Police Firearms Services Bureau, FSB, has announced another option for customers without access to online devices (such as a computer, smart phone or tablet) to apply for and update FOID cards.

Customers can utilize FOID kiosks which have been set up at three Illinois State Police facilities throughout the state.

As of Dec. 15, the locations included Illinois State Police District 13 at 1391 S Washington St. in Du Quoin. Regular hours are scheduled Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Hours are subject to change.

The FSB kiosk system is set up to offer Firearm Owner Identification, FOID, application assistance only.

Services which are available at the kiosks include: Assistance with submitting name/address changes, renewals and new applications online.

Taking a photo and uploading it to the application. Assistance with correcting rejected applications.

A publicly accessible computer will be available to complete online applications and make updates to existing accounts.

Due to the extended time it takes for kiosk representatives to assist people with submitting applications online, customers may be asked to return at a different time.

Illinois minimum wage set to increase

The minimum wage in Illinois is set to increase another dollar on Saturday, Jan. 1, 2022.

The Illinois Department of Labor reports the new wage will be $12 an hour. IDOL said that minimum wage workers are being encouraged to keep a close eye on their paychecks in the new year.

Any time worked in 2022 must reflect the new $12 an hour minimum wage. Gov. JB Pritzker signed legislation in 2019 putting the state on the path to a $15 an hour minimum wage by 2025.

There have been three increases in the minimum wage since the governor signed the wage hike legislation.

Prior to the increases in 2020, the last time Illinois raised its minimum wage was in 2010, when it increased to $8.25.

In Chicago, the minimum wage is already $15 an hour for employers that have 21 or more employees. It's $14 an hour for smaller businesses.

The new law maintains provisions for employers to count gratuities to offset wages for workers, such as food servers, who regularly earn tips.

Tipped employees may be paid 60 percent of the hourly minimum wage. However, these workers must still earn the minimum wage after receiving tips or the employer will make up the difference.

Workers under 18 years old and who work fewer than 650 hours in a year will earn a minimum wage of $9.25 per hour beginning Jan. 1.

LOVING & GIVING

It's the season of gift giving...to friends, to family, to strangers. We can give without loving, but we cannot love without giving. A loving gift may be material or something as simple as a smile, a hug or a listening ear. God's gift of His Son, Jesus Christ, was the greatest gift of love and sacrifice; when we accept God's gift we have everything, without it we are the poorest of the poor. Thank God for His wondrous gift; praise Him as you worship this season of joy.

County Line News

(Mill Creek and Upper Elco)

Being a grown up is rough. The responsibilities are endless and the frustrations enormous.

Because of this, on many an occasion I used to tell my kids I was changing my name. This was puzzling to them, until they became grown ups. Now they know why.

I've received more than one phone call telling me I should be happy, I was vindicated. I tried not to laugh...but...oh well.

The holidays are upon us. Are you ready? I've tried to be, but I've conceded that some things are just not meant to be.

How many of us that have had to re-adjust something this year? It's quite irksome, to be nice about it. I'm not sure what normal is anymore, or if I will ever get it or want it back. Once again...oh well.

Brother Bob Richardson gave his Christmas message from Luke 1.

We are reminded that the lineage of Jesus's earthly father, Joseph, wasn't perfect... still he was chosen to raise our heavenly father's son.

The shepherds were among the lowest of citizens, yet they were the first to hear the news of Christ's birth and were told to spread that news.

We all have baggage, as none of us are perfect. Yet God has chosen us as Christians to spread the message of His son, Jesus, as well. Let us prove we are worthy, of that task.

We need to remember those in need this season, if only in our prayers. Especially the families of those who have lost loved ones.

My family have lost two in the past two weeks: Jim Vines and Florene Wheaton Smith. Indeed, many have, as the obituaries in the newspapers are numerous.

The holidays make it even more emotional for these families. We feel sorrow, and lift up prayers of comfort for all those grieving.

We also need to continue to remember those in need after the storms. Their needs are so varied.

Also, remember those who are sick, struggling with personal issues, and those that are simply alone. The holidays are especially rough on them.

Please keep the following in your prayers: Barry and Beth Miller, Tommy Hollis, Joe and Joyce Sullivan, Lillian Milam, Elaine Helton, Debbie Watson, Johnnie Warren, Ivy Yana, Vickie Harvel Jacobs, Paul McKee, Marc Osequera, Lou Manus, the Camden brothers, Bon Kohler, Jay Smock, Rikki Hogberg, Ricky Foster, Matt Pearson, Barbara and Bob Layman, JoAnn Yates and Nikki Harvel Bates.

We are thankful that Bon Kohler's knee replacement went well. He is not quite ready to do the next knee, though.

He was blessed to have the care and attention of both daughters, Cheryl McKinney and Gaylen Tunberg during this time.

Various friends have dropped in to visit, Lori Stettler, Russ Marsh, myself, and then Mike Whitney who brought a tree.

He's also had medical help checking up on him and his rehab status. He's due to see the doctor soon to get the stitches out.

While Cheryl has returned to California, Gaylen is still here and was tickled that I brought her favorite cake by last night. I'm sorry I didn't know she wanted that particular cake, on her actual birthday. Her brother, Dalton, needs to communicate these things a little better. Happy belated birthday Gaylen.

Other birthday greetings go out to Karly Sadler and my husband, Richard, who just had a birthday too. My sister-in-law, Martha Harvel has a birthday coming up this week, as well.

My mother-in-law, Shirley Harvel, is enjoying time in Sparta with her daughter Vickie Jacobs and all of Vickie's children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Five generations. I hope someone took a lot of photos.

She was also able to attend the birthdays of a great granddaughter, Stella and Stella's daddy, Sean. More December birthdays. Happy birthdays to all. In addition to Christmas, that's a lot of celebrations.

Lula Belle and Junior Tripp had an early dinner with their daughters, Barbara Layman and Joetta Spier, and their husbands, down at Pattie's in Kentucky.

They reported that the place looks great since the rebuild after the fire. The food was great and a good time was had by all.

I was privileged to attend the ceremony of the laying of Wreaths Across America at the National Cemetery in

Camp Ground Church, Community

By Suzan Harvel
Mound City on Saturday.

It was rather wet that morning, but dried up just as the service started. It was my first time to attend services at this cemetery. It was very humbling and I was pleased to be able to honor those laid at rest there. Thank you to all those that put this memorial together so seamlessly.

The number of people who came to help in this event was also awesome, especially given the cold and wet conditions.

Young and old were all there to do what they could to help in honor of those men and women, and to pick up wreaths to be laid at other cemeteries as well. I hope to be able to do more next year.

I arrived a bit early and this let me meet quite a few people.

In addition to meeting up with some of my fellow DAR members, Doda Starkey and Melodie Penrod, I met Becky Mueller, for the first time. She is also from my DAR Chapter. She's not been able to attend meetings due to work, so I was glad to finally meet her.

I then met Connie, the sister of Marva Nelson, who my husband went to high school with in Tamms.

I also met Mrs. Charlie Bennett, also from Tamms, who went to high school with my mother-in-law. As Mrs. Bennett said, it's indeed a small world.

It is my sincere wish that all my neighbors, friends, and relatives, as well as all of you have a very Merry Christmas. Stay safe and remember the reason for this season.

Rev. Thompson's message Sunday was titled "What Does God Want for Christmas?" Scripture was from the Gospels of Matthew and Luke.

The message asked: "What does God want for Christmas? God created all things. Therefore, there is nothing material that we can give God."

"Darius Rucker's song should be a challenge to all of us: peace on Earth, no more empty seats in church, every Bible with no dust, us loving others more."

"What God wants is for us to renew our faith and our hearts with a passion for the salvation of others. God wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of Him."

During the pre-worship announcements, a love offering was presented to Mary Robinson of the Camp Ground congregation, who had major fire damage to her residence recently.

Rev. Thompson was also presented with a Christmas card and monetary gift from the church.

Donna Williams and Karen Vaughn were the Advent readers and lit the fourth Advent candle representing Love.

Logan Quick rang the bell calling all to worship. Logan and Aldi Gerard took up the offering.

Rodney Miller is Camp Ground Church's head elder for December.

Those in attendance Sunday evening shared an array of finger foods and fellowship prior to the church's annual Christmas program.

Moving from the fellowship hall into the sanctuary, the program consisted of recitations, responsive and scripture readings, carols and candle lighting.

The "Welcome" was by Raelynn Bonner, with recitations also by Aldi and Vodra Gerard and Addi Bonner.

Camp Ground Church invites everyone to join with them in worship during this special season, this time of preparing hearts to celebrate the birth of the Savior.

Bible study begins at 9:30 a.m., worship at 10:30 a.m. Those who would like to join in worship via Zoom can leave a message on the church phone with their email address or cell phone number.

Rev. Thompson and the congregation of Camp Ground wish the staff and readers of this newspaper a blessed Christmas, and a happy, healthy 2022.

Blessed Christmas

Wishing everyone a very blessed Christmas as we celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Thank You

Thank you Anna Church of the Nazarene and Phil Ray for hosting and leading our Honor Wreaths for Veterans Ceremony in Anna.

Carla Anderson for playing The Battle Hymn of Republic while the VFW brought in the colors.

Melinda Clardy for presenting the symbolic wreath.

Frankie Williams Scout leader, Tim Casper, David Cook, scouts Anthony Wiseman, Ben Hauser, Joshua Rochon for leading in our Pledge of Alliance to our flag of the United States of America.

A-JCHS choir director

Robbin Mezo was honored for her December birthday at the Union County Housing employee dinner at El Jalapeno Friday Dec. 17.

Rachel Norton, and choir members Ruby Yates and Liam Hale for singing our National Anthem and to Rachel for playing Taps.

Our State Representative Dr. Paul and Mrs. Jacobs for attending. They were on their way to Mounds National Cemetery after our ceremony.

A special thanks to everyone who attended our Honor Wreaths for Veterans services in Union County, helped lay our Honor Wreaths for Veterans and who bought wreaths to honor the memory of our veterans.

It is so nice this year to have Liz Wilkins coordinator for Jonesboro, Karen Winzenburger coordinator for Cobden, Monica Williams coordinator for Alto Pass and myself Martha Ann Webb coordinator for Anna. We are blessed. Saturday along with all the national cemeteries all over our United States Wreaths were being laid. Honor Wreaths for Veterans is a branch off Wreaths Across America.

Wreaths Across America

For a short time now until Jan. 12, 2022, Wreaths Across America will honor every Honor Wreath for Veterans bought with a wreath. This was one way we are able to cover all our veterans.

The wreaths are all hand made in the United States of America and each branch is laid with love and honor for our veterans and has a meaning.

You can buy your wreath from me Martha Ann Webb for Anna, Liz Wilkins for Jonesboro, Karen Winzenburger for Cobden, Monica Williams for Alto Pass.

You can also drop your checks made out to Honor Wreaths for Veterans at each city hall and they will see we get the check.

Jim Koonce who lives in Carterville is president of Honor Wreaths for Veterans.

Rhymer News

Willie and Terrie Rhymer have been busy this week attending four Christmas programs of their grandchildren, Ruby, Mason, Violet and Miles.

Starting with Ruby at A-J High School and Mason, Violet and Miles at the Anna Junior High. All programs were enjoyed.

Saturday they also attended the ceremony at Anna Nazarene Church for Honor Wreaths for Veterans and helped lay the wreaths in the Anna Cemetery.

95th Birthday

Freda Dillow was blessed on her birthday Dec. 12. Her daughter Linda and son-in-law Doug Reid took her Sunday after they attended Church of Christ in Vienna to the Vienna Diner for dinner.

On Thursday she was honored with another birthday dinner at Lake of Egypt Triple E with friends Joe and Lucille Bierbaum, Mary Karaker, Valda Brown and Arlene Ferguson.

Birthday

Marilyn Halstead and her sister Amy Halstead enjoyed a trip to Champaign to celebrate Marilyn's birthday. They also enjoyed shopping in Chicago.

Sympathy

To the family of Mary Light. She went to be with our Lord last week.

She was a wonderful friend and person. She was always helping everyone.

Mary worked at Choate Mental Health for many years. Mary loved to travel after she retired.

Before Mary got sick and the COVID quarantine she was in Little Egypt Red Hat Society, GFWC Illinois Anna-Jonesboro Women's Club, Anna-Jo Garden Club and helped with 4-H.

Mary also served on the advisory council for the RSVP Retired and Senior Volunteer Council for Union County and was a member of the Anna Eastern Star.

Mary attended church regularly and was faithful to our Lord. Most of all she loved her family. She will be missed.

Sympathy

To the family of Jim Vines and Belinda Lu Rhodes. So many of our loved ones have gone to be with our Lord this year. They will be missed.

Honor Wreaths

Now is the time to buy your Honor Wreath for Veterans until Jan. 12 Wreaths Across America will donate a wreath for every wreath bought. Wreaths are $15 each.

You can make your check out for $15 to Honor Wreaths for Veterans and mail to Martha Ann Webb, 118 W. Monroe St., Anna, Ill. 62906 or leave at Anna City Hall and ask them to put in my mail box there.

Question from Weldon Brown about Miller School 1910-1912: Miller School, Springville area Union County, north of Mill Creek. Does anyone know who they are? My Browns lived just south of school. I may have an uncle and aunt in the pic. Grandma died 1910 Grandma 1912. Pretty sure Marion and Hulbert Miller are in the pic according to Ray Dean Miller. Help please if you can. This was before the school was built near the road, it was back in the field east of present area. Weldon Brown weldonmando@yahoo.com.

Anna and Jonesboro joined together for their Honor Wreaths for Veterans ceremony at the Anna Nazarene Church with Phil Ray leading our ceremony. Martha Ann Webb is coordinator for Anna and Liz Wilkins is coordinator for Jonesboro. A special thanks to all who attended our service and for all the volunteers who helped lay the Honor Wreaths for the veterans and for all the many donations for the wreaths.

Martha Ann Webb and Phil Ray welcomed State Rep. During a visit to the Anna Cemetery, Barbara Bauer recalled memories of 1st Lt. Carl N. Garrott.

Boyd, Maj T.V. Honor Wreath memorial: The late Anna native, Maj. Tullie Van Boyd, M.D., was great-uncle to many of Union County's current Boyd residents. He served as a World War I medical technician/ambulance driver in Europe in 1918-19... "keeping the folks back home safe." Since he has no monument here, descendants (Gary) and Emily Boyd Meyer, and Barb Boyd Bauer see to it that he is remembered on the cemetery plot of his parents C.J. and E.M. Boyd. Barbara Bauer says thanks to all who sponsor and manage Wreaths Across America and Honor Wreaths for Veterans that veterans of all ages are remembered.

Megan Brown attended the Honor Wreaths for Veterans Ceremony and helped lay the wreaths in the Anna Cemetery after the ceremony.

From Barbara Bauer

Thanks from Barbara Bauer about Honor Wreaths for Veterans, a branch off Wreaths Across America:

Last week, as I stood at the Anna Cemetery monument of 1st Lt. Carl N. Garrott, I recalled the childhood memories I have from the early 1940s.

As a student at Knupp School, I remember that my teacher, Mrs. O.K. (Kathryn) Loomis told her students about "the war in Europe." She used a map to show us how far away the war was, and that our soldiers were keeping us safe.

I remember that my family experienced "rationing" and shortages, but there again, as a child I was made to feel safe...and far from the conflict.

Only later in life did I really understand what sacrifices others have made to allow loved ones back home to "feel safe."

I remember as a child, seeing the tall handsome young man in uniform at church.

He was family friend Carl Garrott home on leave. He did not come home from that war...keeping me safe. He is buried along with the remains of his Army Air Force crew in the National Cemetery at Fort McPherson in Nebraska.

The monument to his memory in the Anna Cemetery reads: In memory of our son-1918*1st Lt. Carl N. Garrott*1942 Navigator 8th Army Air Force, 93 Group Bomber Sqdn, Lost in combat, Missing over Lille, France Oct. 9, 1942.

Thanks to all the folks who make Wreaths Across America happen. It helps us to honor those of all generations who "keep us safe" and remind us of the sacrifices they made for our liberty.

Note from Pete Housman

Martha Ann Thank you for all you did to allow Union County to participate in honoring our veterans with Wreaths Across America. I know it was a lot of work. Thank you for all your effort.

A bit of news to share. Millie Hankla is back in town after a nearly two year absence. Unfortunately she fell and is recovering from a broken hip and is not receiving guests at this time. It might be nice if folks wanted to send her a card. Millie Hankla, 1220 Old Hwy 51 North, Anna, Ill. 62906.

Union County Hospital

Special Thanks

To Shirley Page for giving me credit when she renewed her subscription to The Gazette-Democrat and Earl Miller for giving me credit when he renewed his subscription to The Gazette-Democrat.

Also a special thanks to Mike and Debbie Fitzgerald and Wanda and Jim Honey for helping lay our Honor Wreaths for Veterans in our Anna Cemetery. If I have left anyone out I will be adding your names next week. You all are appreciated so much.

Also to Dr. Charles Halterman for his donation of 8 Honor Wreaths for Veterans for 2022.

I could never thank everyone enough for making 2021 the best year yet for our Honor Wreaths for Veterans Program.

May God bless everyone with a wonderful New Year and our goal for next year is to cover every veteran in Union County with a Honor Wreaths for Veterans.

Anna First Baptist

Church

The church was treated to several Christmas carols from their children's Sunday school classes and a song by a few of the ladies in the church.

After the last Advent candle was lit, interim pastor Pete Vinson spoke on the Christmas message that we, like Christ, should live with a servant's heart. In order to save the world Jesus left his royal position in heaven to humble himself to live as a human. The least we can do is to sometimes forego our own agendas and consider others first.

All are welcome to worship Sundays at Anna First Baptist in person at 409 Morgan St. at 10:15 a.m. or on YouTube-Anna First Live Feed. A blessed Christmas is wished to all.

Special Visit

Norm and Barb Bauer made a Sunday call on Martha Dillow of rural Anna recently. It was a delightful visit with the perky lady who has celebrated her ninety-thirtieth birthday.

A hip fracture last July has slowed her somewhat, but does not seem to have dampened Martha's spirits.

The aroma of homemade treats she had made for gifts filled the air, and she was happy to show the beautiful knitted items she is working on.

She is somewhat home bound, and uses a walker "for safety" but is pleased to be gaining strength and making plans for the future. That "home bound" visit sent us off with a new spark to our Christmas spirit.

March to the Manger Sunday morning at the United Methodist Church in Anna. Happy birthday Jesus.

Back Porch Company had special music at United Methodist Church Sunday, Dec. 20, to celebrate the coming of the Christ Child: Carla Anderson, Warren Anderson, Richard Johnson and Stuart Anderson.

Brian Thompson entertained the Anna-Jo Garden Club with beautiful Christmas music on the piano at their Christmas dinner party at the Havisham House in Alto Pass. Brian is the son of Shannon and Scott Thompson. Brian is 12 years old and has been taking piano lessons for six years from Carla Anderson.

Marilyn Miller received a picture and Christmas card from her niece Megan, Freddie and daughter Melanie Morse from Alaska where Freddie is stationed in the service. Thanks to them for serving our country.

Stinson Library District's new director glad to be back home

Bearnard...and new Stinson director
Stinson Memorial Library director Sarah Watkins took a moment to have a photograph taken with Bearnard Bear.

Stinson Memorial Public Library District's new director is glad to be back home.

She also is looking forward to working with the community to help promote the use and growth of the library – and to bring in more friends for Stinson Memorial Public Library District.

Sarah Wingate Watkins, a Union County native, was appointed as the library district's new director in late August. The appointment was made by the library district's board of trustees. She started work as the library district's director on Sept. 22.

At the time of her appointment, Watkins said she was looking forward to working with the community "to encourage access to the most relevant and timely information, introducing the love of reading to our younger generations and creating more opportunities for continued growth for our residents."

Watkins, who is from Anna, shared that she was "ecstatic" to be back in her hometown, "particularly at the library that I learned to love reading in." She is now re-introducing herself to the community.

Stinson Memorial Library, which is a national architectural landmark, is located along South Main Street in Anna.

Prior to accepting the job in Anna, Watkins worked as coordinator of library services for the Marion Carnegie Library.

During that time, she earned a master's degree in library and information science from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

"I focused my studies on public library administra-

"I have a real soft spot for children who are in the library," she said.

After pursuing studies at Shawnee Community College, where she studied journalism; and Southern Illinois University Carbondale, where she earned a bachelor's degree in radio/television and marketing.

Stinson Memorial Library has three full-time staff members, 10 who work part-time and two volunteers. Watkins praised the members of library's staff and the work they do.

Visitors to the landmark building will find that Stinson Memorial Library offers myriad services. There are books, of course...along with an opportunity to use computers, which offer access to the internet; audio books, DVDs, virtual programming...and more...all at no cost to the patron.

As Stinson continues to move forward in the midst of an ongoing pandemic, Watkins said she is working to offer several new programs and opportunities for the community.

During the holiday season, the library has sponsored a food drive. Items which were donated to the library will go to Shawnee Development Council's food pantry in Anna.

The library also has offered an opportunity to take a holiday photograph with tion and ethics," Watkins said at the time of her appointment.

In her post at the Marion library, Watkins focused on adult programs, staff training, grant writing, working with young people in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics) activities and even worked on a construction project.

She noted that the Marion library's former director, David Patton, played an important role in her career as a mentor.

Watkins said she is looking forward "to getting the word out about what the modern library has to offer. "Stinson Memorial Public Library District is in the unique position to serve such a wide variety of people in Union County." The district serves some 14,000 people.

She grew up and attended school in Anna, beginning with pre-kindergarten and then attending Lincoln School, Davie School, Anna Junior High School and Anna-Jonesboro Community High School, where she graduated in 2007.

She was among the last group of students to attend classes at Davie School, which has since been closed and transformed into a popular bed and breakfast business.

Watkins recalled that during her years in junior high school, she often would come to Stinson Memorial Library... "to bug the librarians." She enjoyed the library's summer reading programs, access to computers and other services which were available.

As a young person, the library was important to her, an outlook which continues to this day.

Bearnard Bear. Bearnard is the library's "mascot."

She would like to partner with the community to offer programs which highlight people's skills and experiences.

Early next year, the library district's branch facility in Cobden is scheduled to reopen. The branch has been closed for nearly two years due to the pandemic.

The plan is for the branch facility to reopen in February 2022.

Plans also are in the works for Stinson to offer virtual "evenings with" authors. The programs will be offered through a statewide Illinois libraries coalition.

"An Evening with Silvia Moreno-Garcia" is planned at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 26.

Moreno-Garcia is a best-selling author whose newest book is titled "Velvet was the Night."

"An Evening with Jasmine Guillory" is set for 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 16.

Guillory is a writer, lawyer and New York Times best-selling author of six romance novels.

Watkins and her family currently live in Carterville. She anticipates moving to Union County. She is married and has a daughter who is 7 years old. Watkins enjoys the outdoors, kayaking, swimming, taking photographs, writing and reading (non-fiction, fantasy, science fiction, historical fiction and history).

Cobden Branch Library set to reopen in February

After an uncertain few years, patrons of the Stinson Memorial Public Library District once again will be able to visit the Cobden Branch Library.

Stinson Memorial Public Library District director Sarah Watkins has announced that the branch facility located in the downtown Cobden area is set to reopen on Feb. 7, 2022. An open house event is scheduled from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. on that day to celebrate the branch's reopening.

Visitors from the Village and across Union County are encouraged to stop by and get reacquainted with the library, Watkins said.

"The Cobden Branch is an eclectic space where patrons can pick up books, DVDs, audiobooks and order items from other libraries," Watkins said.

"The Cobden Branch Library has a very different esthetic than its Stinson Memorial counterpart. Those who visit Cobden will enjoy a cozy and creative atmosphere," she added.

The new operating hours for the Cobden Branch Library are scheduled to be Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m., and Friday, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The primary librarian at the Cobden location will be Katie Persinger.

"Katie has been part of the Stinson family for over seven years and will be taking over this role from librarian Nancy West. Nancy had previously run the Cobden Branch for 11 years," Watkins said.

"Katie is excited to serve and is ready to bring her enthusiasm to the Cobden Branch."

The Cobden Branch Library is the secondary location in the Stinson Memorial Public Library District.

The main library is located along South Main Street in Anna.

"Some may not know that residents in the library district can apply for a library card at either location," Watkins said.

"Both Anna and Cobden Stinson Library cardholders can access great apps for electronic books, audiobooks, graphic novels, TV shows and movies.

"Stinson Memorial Public Library District is going to continue to adapt and offer resources to our community. We look forward to seeing you at both locations soon."

In January 1937, oil was discovered on a farm near Patoka in Marion County. The discovery marked the beginning of an oil boom in Southern Illinois. By the end of the year, Illinois ranked 11th among oil producing states, with about 7.5 million barrels.

Retirement reception set at Cobden church

The First Presbyterian Church of Cobden is planning to host a retirement reception in honor of its interim pastor.

Pastor Dan Whitfield has served as interim pastor of the Cobden church for two years.

The retirement reception is planned Sunday morning, Jan. 2, 2022, following the church's morning worship service. The service is at about 11:15 a.m. The reception is open to all friends and family.

Pastor Whitfield attended Louisville Theological Seminary. He spent 15 years ministering to the Vietnamese community. More recently, he has pastored in Marion and Benton.

John P. Altgeld was inaugurated as governor of Illinois on Jan. 10, 1893.

Belinda Lu Rhodes

Belinda Lu Rhodes, 69, of Wolf Lake, died from an aneurysm the morning of Wednesday, Dec. 15, 2021, at Union County Hospital in Anna.

She was born on Sept. 10, 1952, the daughter of Leda Mae Wallace of Vandeuser, Mo.

She married Phillip Lane Rhodes on Oct. 11, 1974, at Beech Grove Baptist Church in rural Alto Pass, after a two year courtship and on-the-farm training.

She is survived by her most loving husband, Lane Rhodes of Wolf Lake; children Stephanie Rhodes of Alto Pass, Kevin (Darson) Rhodes of Hamlin, N.Y., and Felicia (Jason) Gale of Keokuk, Iowa; four grandchildren, Toby (Kenzie) Gale of Montrose, Iowa, Molly Gale of Keokuk, Iowa, Tyus and Jonas Rhodes of Hamlin, N.Y.; one great-grandchild, Kaesen Lane Gale of Montrose, Iowa; siblings Veda Hafley of Cape Girardeau, Maria (Bob) Cogar of Fort Wayne, Ind. and John (Liz) Stage of Ventura, Calif.; great-aunt and sister Judy Kay Wallace of Vandeuser, Mo.; special friend and bonus mom, Ida May Smith of Anna; other family and special neighbors and friends. She was preceded in death by her mother.

She was a member of Beech Grove Baptist Church and enjoyed supporting the Anna Heights Baptist Church Sunday School Class at the Illinois Veterans Home in Anna. She and Lane held Sunday school and song services there for 23 years, making friends there to many veterans and their families.

She farmed with her husband, where they raised crops, livestock, many birds and their three children.

Belinda loved flowers and helping people. She loved being a farm wife and forever companion to Lane and treasured their life together in the country.

Graveside funeral services were at 11 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 18, at the Jonesboro Cemetery, with Bill Littrell officiating.

Rendleman & Hileman Funeral Home in Jonesboro was in charge of arrangements.

Memorials can be made to the Illinois Veterans Home or to the Fisher House in St. Louis.

James W. Vines

James W. Vines, 76, of Iowa City, Iowa, and formerly of Union County, died Thursday, Dec. 16, 2021, in Iowa City.

Mr. Vines was born on Jan. 4, 1945, in Cairo, the son of Lloyd and Edna Landis Vines.

Jim was father to three girls who learned about the importance of family because of him. He cared for them, worried about them, prayed for them and fought for them. He instilled the importance and value of family which has carried on to his grandchildren.

Jim was a quiet and contemplative man who enjoyed making others laugh through his good-hearted nature and his practical jokes. He loved to tell a tall tale to elicit a smile and was happiest when those around him were happy.

Jim was very talented. He could build just about anything, having built two houses and remodeled many others. He could do everything from electrical to paint and enjoyed putting his talents to use.

His personality and kindness will be missed, but his legacy will be carried on by all who knew him.

Surviving him are his beloved wife of 57 years, Shirley; children Kim (Steve) Norton, Karen Shay (David) Bean and Kirsty Gardner; grandchildren Jared (Ashley) Norton, Ethan Norton, Sabrina Gardner and Elliott Gardner, great-grandson Bert Norton; a brother, Donald (Bonnie) Vines; siblings-in-law Cindy Vines and Barney Barnhart. Sadly, Jim was preceded in death by his siblings, Virginia Adams, Lloyd Vines Jr., Joyce Barnhart, Linda Hopp and Jean Marie Vines; siblings-in-law Basil Adams and Gordon Hopp; and his parents, Lloyd and Edna.

Graveside funeral services for Jim Vines will be at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 29, at Ebenezer Hall Cemetery. Interment will follow.

Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. Wednesday, Dec. 29, at Rendleman & Hileman Funeral Home in Anna.

Talking Ovarian Cancer Project receives key funding

The Talking Ovarian Cancer Project, TOCP, in the Southern Seven Health Department has received a $3,500 grant from GRAIL for use in ovarian cancer education and survivor support.

GRAIL is a healthcare company which is focused on improving health by pioneering new technologies for early cancer detection.

GRAIL developed a multi-cancer early detection, MCED, test that can detect more than 50 types of cancer including ovarian cancer through a routine blood draw by detecting abnormal DNA from cells in the bloodstream with a very low false positive rate of less than one percent.

When a cancer signal is detected, the test predicts the type of cancer and where the cancer is located in the body with 93 percent accuracy.

"This is good news given GRAIL's test can detect cancers that have no recommended screening tests today, such as ovarian cancer, and for this reason, more than two-thirds of cancers go unscreened," Rudy Bess of The Hope Light Foundation said in a news release.

"With early cancer detection, the burden of cancer can be reduced and many lives can be saved which is the main reason behind the GRAIL test and TOCP's mission."

In September, GRAIL announced that the New York State Department of Health has approved its Galleri MCED blood test for residents in the State of New York to complement existing single cancer screening tests.

The test requires a prescription from a licensed healthcare provider for use in addition to recommended cancer screenings, such as mammography, a colonoscopy, a prostate-specific antigen, PSA, test or cervical cancer screening.

The test is intended for use in people with an elevated risk of cancer, such as those aged 50 or older.

Being able to access the right cancer screenings at the right time is a key component to improving health equity, health officials noted.

GRAIL's new, early detection technologies will be able to be performed by primary health providers with minimal additional training.

This will help the uninsured, the underinsured, and those who don't live close to a medical specialist detect cancers before they spread throughout the body.

GRAIL's grant for the TOCP followed a $1,000 donation from The Hope

Light Foundation that will be used to promote early ovarian cancer detection in the absence of a reliable ovarian cancer screening test throughout the Southern Seven Health Department counties.

The Talking Ovarian Cancer Project was created earlier this year by Rudy Bess, founder of the Hope Light Foundation, in an effort to increase education and awareness, and thus give women the tools they need to be proactive in their healthcare.

The Hope Light Foundation and the National Ovarian Cancer Coalition out of Chicago are partnering with regional health care facilities and providers to reduce late stage ovarian cancer for women living in the Southern Seven region.

Among those include Community Health & Emergency Services (CHESI), Hardin County General Hospital, Massac Memorial Hospital, Rural Health Inc., Southern Seven Health Department and Union County Hospital in Anna.

Increased awareness and education about all forms of cancer is the key to saving lives.

More information is available by contacting Rudy Bess at coastallt@sbcglobal.net or Shawna Rhine at Southern Seven Health Department at 618-634-2297, extension 9161. Information also is available for healthcare providers who may want to be involved in the project.

Local business continues holiday tradition

Union County students share what Christmas means to them

Winning writers

Rusty's Home Center in Anna continued its holiday tradition with its "What Christmas Means to Me" writing contest. Six creative entries were chosen from the six Union County elementary schools, with contest winners each receiving a jumbo-sized Christmas stocking filled with toys. This year's winners included, from left, Jaelyn Khurana, Izabelle Bracken, Parker McCann, Kayleigh McMahan and Brett Allen. Also pictured, separately, is Easton Bigham.

A Union County business again this year continued a special holiday season tradition.

Rusty's Home Center in Anna invited elementary students at Union County schools to share, in their own words, what Christmas means to them.

The winning entries each received a giant Christmas stocking from the business. This year's winning entries follow:

Izzy Bracken Dongola

Christmas is to have fun and joy and to be with your family and friends. Christmas is to buy gifts for people or family or friends and you. Christmas is to see santa and your elves and your gifts.

Christmas is to get a tree to decorate and put gift's under. Christmas is making cookies with candy with grandma.

Christmas is to open gifts and play with it. Christmas is joy Christmas all month long.

Jaelyn Khurana Jonesboro

What Christmas means to me is joyful and happiness. I love Christmas it makes me calm.

Why I like Christmas is I like the lights and having elves. The big thing I like about it is because its Jesus' birthday. Should celebrate Christmas is its Jesus birthday Christmas to me is Love.

I love Jesus and its his birthday. Christmas is not about gift its about family and friends.

The first thing we do is make cookies and warm up some milk. Then sprinkle some oatmeal outside for the reindeer.

My favrite thing is when we have a sleepover with my whole family my cousin and uncle and aunts come.

For Christmas eve dinner we have ham, mashed potatoes, corn, and green beans. After Christmas eve dinner we play games.

I really want a dog. I want to get my mom candles and stuff she been wanting. The reason my family celebrates Christmas is its Jesus' birthday

Parker McCann Cobden

Christmas is very special to me so I'm going to tell you what Christmas means to me.

My first reason is that everyone shows love for each other and really means it. My second reason is the fun of baking or cooking for Christmas. My final reason is that no matter where you go your family will be there.

I love Christmas traditions like baking or cooking, showing love, and that your family is always with you. Sure, Christmas is fun but so are other things.

Feliz Navidad!!!

Kayleigh McMahan Lick Creek

What Christmas means to me is first Jesus's birthday, which is important to me. The next thing for me that Christmas means is spending time with my family, that is something I like very much. The other thing that Christmas means to me is giving to others. I love to be able to give to other people and make them happy.

The reason Jesus's birthday is so important to me on Christmas is because He died on the cross for us. I love to celebrate His birth and I am thankful that He gave His life for us all.

Another reason that His birthday is so special to me is because He loves us all so much. The last thing I love about celebrating Jesus's birthday on Christmas is because He brought me to life and I love Him for that.

Another thing that Christmas means to me is family. I love spending time with them and doing fun stuff. Lots of my family lives far away from me and when I get to see them it makes me so happy.

My family loves me so much and I love them too. When I get to see my cousins, it is always so much fun. We get to play the whole time and I get to see my grandparents too, and I love that.

Lastly, what Christmas means to me is giving to others. This is important to me. I love making other people happy.

I like to make cookies and candy with my mom and give them to my Papa's they love sweets. I love being able to make crafts for friends and family and give them as gifts. They always like them so much and that makes me happy. To see someone smile that I have given a gift to makes me feel so good.

My parents have always told me to pay it forward and I never know for a long time what they meant, but I do now. It is nice to give to others.

So, what Christmas means to me is all these things. It is not just one thing. Celebrating Jesus, seeing all my family, and giving to others is what Christmas is about. It is nice to et things but giving them to other people is also nice.

I hope everyone has a Merry Christmas and sees what exactly it is all about. Jesus is the reason for the season. Merry Christmas everyone.

Brett Allen Anna

Oh what Christmas means to me. It means love. I love Christmas because I can be with my family and they won't all ways be there.

Christmas is not all abot presents or the deciratins it is about LOVE and being with family not toys!

And now I am going to tell you what I do, Me and Mom make jinjr bred. Me and dad go out and make snow men and go sleiding. And drive fourwheelers in the snow. And we love doing snow ball fites and making forts.

We all ways pull the sled with me on it. He pulls it with his fourwheeler and when I come in we drink hot choclit. And every morning we all ways git up and look at where elf went. He is all over the place, like today Dec 14 2021 he is gone!

This page I am going to tell you about elf and going outside and doing snow ball fites. At first elf didn't move but now he is on the mantel and now he is on the lamp. And he is not a normil elf look at the bottom of the page.

And now I am going to tell you about snow-ball fites. It is normily me and dad but Sometimes mom joins. Me and dad dodj, jump, dive, throw, slide, and run. I stil think the funist thing is to drive fourwheelers and sled. I tink driving fourwheelers are the funist because you slip around. Thank you for reading.

Easton Bigham Shawnee

Christmas means alot to me because friends family friend and christmas lights. I love christmas sprits santa and of course presents and christmas tree and i love family dinner and Jesus and god.

The reason I love all of thes things is spending time with a coupol reasons I love Christmas.

Now I cam going to tell you why those little reasons mean so much to me. The reason why christmas lights mean so much to me is my family does it ever year. The reason I love santa so much is me my family and friends take pictures with him every year. The reason I love the christmas tree is the lights and the star on top. the reason I love Jesus is he died on the cross for people that he did not eveknow. Those are my favorite reason why I love christmas I celebrate every year. No matter if you are good or bad it is what you do in the future.

Opinion and Commentary

Light from a candle was shining on a December afternoon during the recent Carols at Candlelight Christmas season event at historic St. Anne's Church in Anna.

'Good news of great joy'

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the whole world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment, when Quirinius was governor of Syria.

So all went to be enrolled, each to his own town. And Joseph too went up from Galilee from the town of Nazareth to Judea, to the city of David that is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child.

While they were there, the time came for her to have her child, and she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Now there were shepherds in that region living in the fields and keeping the night watch over their flock. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were struck with great fear.

The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find an infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger."

And suddenly there was a multitude of the heavenly host with the angel, praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests." – from the Gospel of Luke

Merry Christmas

A Page from the Past

from the files of The Gazette-Democrat
Thursday, December 23, 1971

Friday, Dec. 24, marks the "real" beginning of one of the most beloved of all celebrations throughout the Christian world – the one evening when Christians join together in services, midnight mass, candlelight and in their homes to wait for the joyous hour, the anniversary of the birth of the Savior. And in this community, as in cities and towns around the world, people will gather in the churches to join in the special services being held to commemorate his birth.

Disappointing to those who enjoy snow on Christmas: the weatherman is not predicting any snow for the holiday! The area was without snow last Christmas, but the year before in 1969, two inches fell on the four inches already on the ground, for the first "White Christmas" since 1963 in Union County.

The Cobden High School band will depart from Cobden Wednesday, Dec. 29, to participate in the Sun Bowl Parade in El Paso, Texas.

Union County's Community Action Committee, with goals for better living, is working hard for the establishment of Community Meals Delivery to the elderly and infirm.

Anna-Jonesboro Teen Town will hold its 14th annual all-night New Year's Eve party for Teen Town members, their guests and non-members.

Members of the Davie School P.T.A. and many parents and grandparents were guests of Davie School for the annual Christmas musicale, "Christmas Cards For You," presented Tuesday, Dec. 14.

From the Shiloh news: We wish you all a Merry Christmas wherever you are.

'Tis the season...

...for traditions...

A few years ago, don't remember exactly when, I decided, for reasons unknown, to share a few of my favorite critter pics from the year with you. As you probably have been able to tell over the years, I kind of like taking photographs of critters...

...all kinds of critters...

Birds. Lots of birds. Guess 'cause we seem to have lots of birds in our little corner of the world. Sometimes, I find them in our backyard. Sometimes I find them while wandering around on one of my daily walkabouts.

Sometimes we'll see them while motoring around on a Sunday afternoon.

Turtles. Lots of turtles, too...which, by the way, I did not expect to see on the 16th day of December...and yet, there they were...and there they are...

The occasional groundhog, also known as a woodchuck. And, of course, squirrels. Lots of squirrels. In keeping with tradition, we'll check them out next time...

In the meantime, enjoy whatever special holiday tradition you might have...and...

Merry Christmas

Dear Santa,
I want a kitchen for Christmas. I need some food stuff to go in the kitchen. I want a Barbie house. I want Hunter to play with me, with the Barbies. Hunter wants Bronco stuff. My Mommy wants a carpet for the kitchen. Daddy wants a carpet for us, blue. I love you!

Abbie Dunn

Dear Santa,
Lucy wants dolls for Christmas, more dolls. Knox would like a Nerf gun. Isla wants a baby doll. My Mom wants that thing that you grab on and you peddle. It gets you exercise. My Dad wants that black thing that you spray and it smells good. You get it at Walmart. I want for Christmas, more Pokémon packs. Thank you!

Nash Harris

Dear Santa,
I want a pony, a music box, a doll house, and a garage. I have a garage, but I want a girl one. We only have a boy garage. My Mom wants books about the beach. My Dad wants new shoes, basketball ones for daddies to go to the soccer ball game. My brothers want toys. Thank you!

Faith Holderfield

Dear Santa,
I want a Barbie doll. I want it to be 'Chelsie.' She has long hair, and she has a skirt, and a lot of dogs. Her hair is blonde. My brother wants fifty V-Bucks. It's a card that you can spend the money off of it. My mommy only wants everything to be good for us. My Daddy wants a new garage because it's full of stuff. He builds a lot of stuff for me, my brother, and my mom. I want to know if you will have a good Christmas. I want you to know that I can do a front flip. Thank you!

Adley Lewis

Dear Santa,
I want a PJ Masks Catboy monster truck, space toys, Spiderman Legos, a Catboy house with controllers, and a toy bow and arrow. I want you to bring Naomi some Mickey and Minnie things like a clubhouse with all of the Mickey Mouse friends. My Grandma would like a new, little heart, because hers is not working right. Grandpa would like some real tools. Thank you for giving me toys!

Waylon McCowen

Dear Santa,
I want a hoverboard. I want this cool coloring book because it has this cool, Barbie thing. Lillian wants this computer, and it comes with a computer pen, and there's games on it you can play. My Mommy needs a printer because her computer won't print out papers, because hers ran out of paper. My Daddy really wants a big, grownup sized, baby Yoda. Santa, I am smart, because I actually know how to spell 'cat,' and my sight words. Thank you!

Gracelynn Newberry
